Women's Retreat: Beautiful Things

Friday, Sept. 11 -
Saturday, Sept. 12, 2020

Our Guest Speaker: Kim Krull

Kim was born, raised and married in Armour, SD. She and her husband Dennis have raised 3 daughters, losing one to addiction and gaining sons (in law) and grandchildren along the way. She is a devout journal keeper, a passionate Christian and a first time author.

She enjoys blogging and encouraging others to trust God and to grow in their faith. She and her husband have experienced success in their careers as small business owners and her faith has endured numerous tragedies that have sent her reeling and doubting the goodness of God.

Kim was a volunteer EMT for many years and was present at some of the most difficult, frightening times in people's lives. She now volunteers with hospice and embraces the privilege of spending time with those facing their fears at the end of their lives. She also volunteers in prison ministry and has witnessed firsthand the regret, shame and consequences of our decisions. Her experiences have taught her about the fragility, brevity, and beauty of life.

Her heart is for women to become all that God intended them to be and to grow in strength, in faith, and in relationship with Jesus Christ. Kim is honest about the difficulty of life and the struggle of faith. She is also confident and sincere about the power and ability of God. Kim has lived her life with a passion for others and as a result has been scarred and battered. She believes that every one matters, that life is for embracing and that scars are a sign of strength. She is adamant that we underestimate God and she wants to remind you that this life is for embracing and that the very God who called you to Himself will equip you for whatever He has placed in your path.
